

Lori Meier

Lori Meier has been a member of the Wagner Farm Arboretum since the Community Garden opened. She joined the WFA Giving Garden Committee in 2007 and since 2021 has been the trustee with responsibility for the Children's Garden.

For over 30 years, Lori was a software developer for AT&T and Citi. In 2011, she began her own native plant landscape design business, Yards of Plenty, and continues to provide this service as a means to create landscapes that are beneficial to the environment. She is a certified Permaculture Landscape Designer, and has completed the Organic Land Care Program at Rutgers Cooperative Extension, along with courses in organic fruit tree management, rain gardens and bio-nutrients.

Lori is currently a full-time employee of the Morris-Union Jointure Commission in Berkeley Heights, NJ. Her love of the outdoors extends to her enjoyment of kayaking, fishing, skiing and hiking whenever she can.
